INTRODUCTION

In most African countries, the term "college" refers to high schools, hence community colleges have had a difficult time promoting themselves. Students in that region are unaware of the 2+2 chances available, which allow them to finish two years of college and the remaining two years of university to receive a degree.

The event is only for community colleges in the United States who want to advertise their programs in Africa. Our event marketing will inform potential students about the options available and introduce them to various benefits they may not be aware of.

This event is a 3-hour online experience hosted on the Worldview Virtual platform. Each institution has its own customised private booth, where up to 3 people from your team can simultaneously attend to and assist students with their enquiries. You can communicate with students via text in a private chat or through audio and video calls.
